“Royal Lady of Mutal”
16” x 20”

Cuban-born Hector Fernandez is a self-taught artist who has been drawing or creating in one way or another since he was very young. Although he has worked in many different mediums over the years, his passion is with scratchboard. He loves the incredible detail and the wonderful contrast that is achievable with this medium.

Hector resides in Maryland and is a Signature Member of the International Society of Scratchboard Artists (ISSA)., which he joined when it was formed a decade ago.

Hector has received many awards for his art from various shows over the years, including the Lancaster Museum of Art and History, Glendale Art Association, Santa Clarita Artists’ Association, Thousand Oaks Art Association, and most notably 4 awards from the ISSA (2 Silver Awards, 1 Bronze Award and 2 Awards of Excellence).

Hector has exhibited his work in various galleries, winery and brewery tasting rooms on both the West and East Coasts of the United States.
